

Think Waterbugs Think Boring? Think Again!!

Have you ever thought about water bugs? Heard of Wirlygigs, Caddisflies or Back Swimmers? These fascinating creatures have long been regarded as excellent indicators of the health and condition of our waterways.

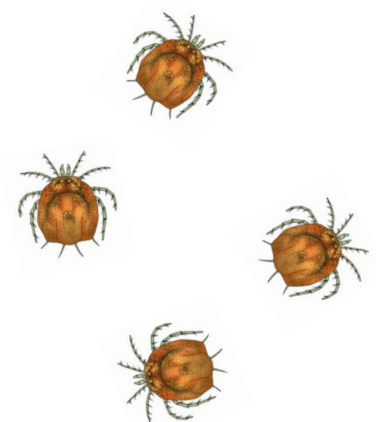

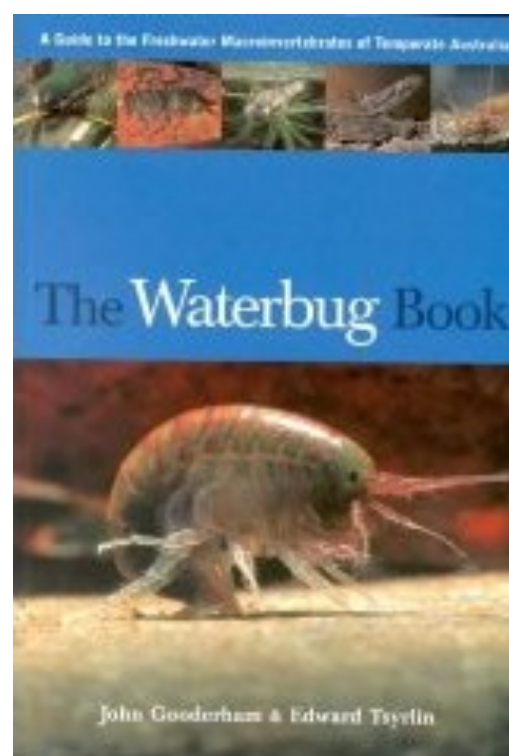

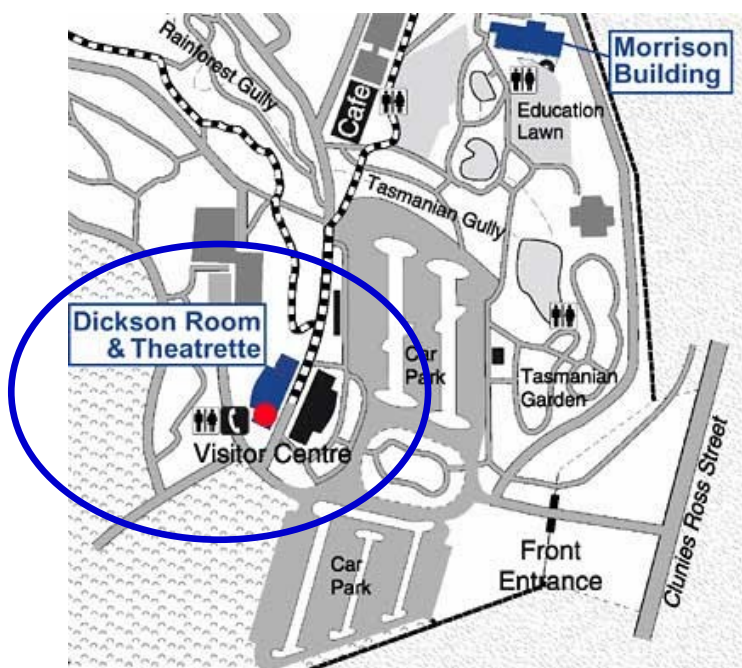

It's hard to find a more passionate water bug expert than John Gooderham - co-author of the Eureka prize winning 'The Waterbug Book'. Come to free talk at the ANBG, be captivated by John's enthusiasm and you will never look at water bugs the same way again.

WHEN: 6-7pm (refreshments from 5:30), FRIDAY, 6 DECEMBER 2013

WHERE: Theatrette, Australian National Botanic Gardens (see map)

CONTACT: WOO O'REILLY woo.oreilly@act.gov.au or 0413 246 761

Brought to you by

