Hi, I'm wondering when the afternoon session for finals will be, since I have another exam on the same day but in the morning. If I can't make the afternoon session (because of clash) what will happen?

The provisional exam timetable suggests our exam is likely to be on Monday 6 May. The exam will be run in two three-hour sessions; if you have a clash with another centrally-timetabled exam, you will be allocated to the appropriate session automatically.
